

History

B.A. | Bachelor of Arts in History

nwciowa.edu/history

Humanity's story

As a history major at Northwestern, you'll learn from Christian professors who believe all people are made in God's image and have inherent dignity and worth. You'll study where God's people have been, what they've done, how they think and who they've influenced.

Explore + discover

Participate in the American Studies Program in Washington, D.C., and intern at the Holocaust Museum or with members of Congress. Immerse yourself in urban culture through our Chicago Semester or learn the histories of other countries during a semester abroad. Northwestern offers history-related programs in places like Oman, Romania, China, England, Latin America and the Middle East.

1 of 25

Dr. Michael Kugler was 1 of 25 professors chosen to participate in an Oxford seminar on Christianity, the humanities and science.

100% placement

100% of history majors find a job or enroll in grad school within six months of graduation.

Law degree in six years

Northwestern has partnered with Drake University to help you earn B.A. and J.D. degrees in 6 years.

Outcomes

Northwestern history graduates have pursued graduate degrees at Boston University, Texas Tech and the University of Glasgow, Scotland. They're teaching at every level and have careers in historical research and reenactment; museum and archive management; and law, politics, and diplomatic service.

Join our standout history alumni at employers and graduate schools such as:

- Abundant Life Christian School, Honduras
- Office of Inspector General of Nebraska, Lincoln, NE
- University of Minnesota Law School, Minneapolis, MN
- U.S. Army Officer Candidate School, Tucson, AZ
- Wayne State University (Library and Information Science), Detroit, MI