Dear Ms. Kate Hartzler,

I am writing to express my interest in the kindergarten teaching position available at the Roland-Story Community School District beginning in the fall of 2025. After exploring my qualifications for this position, I am confident that I possess the skills you are seeking. My experience at Northwestern College, including rigorous courses and classroom observations, have inspired my passion for serving students and creating positive learning experiences.

Through my education at Northwestern College, I am equipped and passionate to serve my students, coworkers, and community. In my courses, I have learned how to adopt the Northwestern College education department model of "Teacher as Servant." I have been equipped and encouraged with strategies to apply servant-heartedness in the classroom. These courses have expanded my skills in creating engaging lessons and collaborating with educators through teamwork and personal connection.

Additionally, through my experience as a summer nanny, I have learned how to provide optimal care for the needs of children, while creating an engaging and safe environment. Each day I managed the routines of the children, ensuring that tasks were properly followed. I implemented various subjects and goals into engaging summer activities. Furthermore, I developed strong communication skills and credibility with the parents regarding their children's daily activities and behaviors.

Apart from my educational experiences and qualifications, I am eager for the opportunity to connect with your team of passionate educators. I am confident that teaching is a calling, and I am committed to continuous improvement and a constant striving for excellence as I support the growth of my students. I believe that my passion for this career and my educational and interpersonal skills make me a strong candidate for the position.

I would love to discuss my qualifications in person, over the phone at (507) XXX-XXXX, or through email at xxxxx@gmail.com. I look forward to learning more about your school and community. Thank you for considering my application for this kindergarten teaching position.

Sincerely,

Lauren Waypa
