Hiring Manager
Marshall School District
601 E Southview Dr.
Marshall, MN 56258

Dear Hiring Manager:

I am writing to express my interest in the fourth-grade elementary teaching position currently available at Southview Elementary, beginning in the fall of 2024. After exploring my qualifications for this teaching position, I am confident that I possess the skills you are seeking. My experiences at Northwestern College, including rigorous courses and classroom observations, have inspired my passion for serving students and creating positive learning experiences.

Through my education at Northwestern College, I am equipped and passionate to serve my students, coworkers, and community. In my courses, I have learned how to adopt the Northwestern College education department model of "Teacher as Servant." I have been equipped and encouraged with strategies to apply servant-heartedness in the classroom. These courses have expanded my skills in creating engaging lessons and collaborating with educators through teamwork and developing personal connections. Additionally, through my experience as a camp counselor, I have learned how to diligently care for the needs, questions, and growth of young people and support them in their development.

As an ambitious educator, I possess the skills, knowledge, characteristics, and passions that are essential to positively impact my future students. Through various classroom experiences, courses, and observations, I have developed a complex understanding of student engagement and quality teaching strategies. I have been able to observe and work alongside other teachers in the local school districts, collaborating with various educators and engaging with diverse learners. I am dedicated to building a classroom environment that is loving, encouraging, and supportive to ensure quality learning, creativity, and growth.

Apart from my educational experiences and qualifications, I am eager for the opportunity to connect with your team of passionate educators. I am confident that teaching is a calling, and I am committed to continuous improvement and a constant striving for excellence as I support the growth of my students. I believe that my passion for this career and my educational and interpersonal skills make me a strong candidate for the position.

I would love to discuss my qualifications in person, over the phone at (515) XXX-XXXX, or through email at xxxxx@yahoo.com. I look forward to the opportunity to learn more about the school and community. Thank you for considering my application for this fourth-grade teaching position.

Sincerely,

Brynn Nelson
