Focus on faith

A Christian perspective is central to everything we do at Northwestern. It's what sets us apart from colleges and universities where faith is on the margins or missing altogether. We'll help you develop valuable tools for connection—opening doors to new friendships across cultural and language barriers.

Global connections

Studying Spanish will prepare you for success in a variety of fields, from social work and education to business and medicine. Take class with professors who have worked as educators, missionaries and interpreters. You'll also regularly meet with a Hispanic conversation partner and study abroad in a Spanish-speaking country.

Bilingual opportunities

You'll have plenty of opportunities to practice your growing language skills on campus and in the community.

- ✓ Participate in or lead Spanish Chapel
- ✓ Volunteer alongside our area's Hispanic community
- ✓ Attend a nearby Spanish-speaking church
- ✓ Tutor Hispanic community members in English
- ✓ Travel on mission trips to Spanish-speaking countries

Off-campus study

Immerse yourself in the Spanish language by studying in Costa Rica, Spain, Guatemala and elsewhere.

100% placement

100% of our recent Spanish graduates found a job or started grad school within six months of graduation.

Diverse faculty

Our faculty from Argentina, Canada and the United States have taught or studied in more than 10 countries.

Outcomes

Around 85% of U.S. employers are reliant on Spanish communication, according to the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages. Join our standout Spanish alumni at employers such as:

- Council of Protestant Churches of Nicaragua, Managua, Nicaragua
- Latino Center of the Midlands, Omaha, NE
- Marshalltown Community School District, Marshalltown, IA
- Omaha Children's Hospital & Medical Center, Omaha, NE
- Promise Community Health Partners, Sioux Center, IA
